William Bradley Roberts

William Bradley Roberts is Director of Music Ministry at St. John's Church, Lafayette Square, in Washington, D.C., a position he has held since September 2002. Prior to this, he held similar positions in Tucson, AZ, Newport Beach, CA and Louisville, KY.

A native of Mississippi, Dr. Roberts holds degrees in voice, choral conducting, church music and music education. He has taught on the faculties of Indiana University Southeast, Mars Hill College and Southern Seminary.

Active in the work of the Episcopal Church, Roberts has served as Chair of the Standing Commission on Church Music, and Chair of the Leadership Program for Musicians Serving Small Congregations (LPM). He was a curriculum writer for LPM, creating the materials "Voice Training for Choirs" and "Philosophy of Church Music".

Dr. Roberts has done sabbatical study at the monasteries of Solemnnes and Taizé in France and with composer Bruce Parker. His music is published by Augsburg-Fortress, Church Publishing, GIA, Hope, St. James Music Press, Selah and Paraclete Press.

The composer recommends the tempo of dotted half = 56.
