June Nixon

June Nixon is Organist Emerita at St. Paul's Cathedral, Melbourne, Australia, where she served as Director of Music for forty years. Her influence outside the Anglican Church was recognized in 1995 by the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne awarding her the Percy Jones Award for "outstanding dedication and service given to music for worship." She was made a Member (AM) in the General Division of the Queen's Birthday Honours in 1998 for services to church music. In 1999, the Archbishop of Canterbury conferred on her the Lambeth Degree, Doctor of Music (Canon), and in 2013 she was awarded Associate of the Royal School of Church Music (ARSCM).

She is a widely published composer, writing music which is accessible and enjoyable for both musicians and listeners. Her works have been recorded by several English and American Cathedral choirs, and her arrangement of the traditional carol "The Holly and the Ivy" was included in the New Lessons and Carols from King's College, Cambridge in 2010.
