Tim Knight

Born in Northallerton, North Yorkshire, Tim became a chorister in the York Minster Choir under Dr. Francis Jackson, with the daily round of choral services exposing him to an immense and diverse repertoire. Currently, Tim pursues a dual musical career: as a conductor, he has worked with choirs large and small and held posts with the Wakefield Festival Chorus, Vocalis, The York Rose Singers, Thornton Vocal Union, The Eldon Singers and a host of other celebrated Northern Choirs; he runs two choirs that he founded, The Heritage Singers and The Heritage Masterworks Chorale. As a composer, Tim's music ranges from small woodwind ensemble pieces to large-scale choral and orchestral works; he was nominated three times in the UK Classic FM Hall of Fame in 2014, 2015, and 2016 and his work has been performed in concert halls, schools and cathedrals within the UK, Europe, and America. He undertook a composer-in-residence visit to Clarke University, Dubuque, Iowa for the premiere of his Requiem aeternam and was guest composer in 2002 at the Royal Canadian College of Organist's conference. His music is published by a variety of publishers in the UK, America, Canada, Australia and Germany. He has previously held the position of Music and Festivals Officer on the Executive Board of the British Association of Choirs and in 2016 was elected as the Chairman for the Royal School of Church Music committee in the Ripon and Leeds area.
