Michael Pietranczyk

Born and raised on the south side of Chicago, Michael Pietranczyk began his career as an organist at age 13 at Ivanhoe United Methodist Church in Riverdale, Illinois. He served numerous congregations throughout his high school and college years. Mr. Pietranczyk studied organ performance at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Florida State University and the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University. Currently, he holds the position of Director of Music at Orchard Park Presbyterian Church in Indianapolis where he serves as organist, choir director, handbell director, and director of various instrumental ensembles. His interest in composition peaked during his years at Orchard Park and he has enjoyed writing anthems, service music, and instrumental pieces for the talented musicians of his congregation.
