Concertato on
Jesus Shall Reign

SATB, congregation, and organ

Robert Lau

Editor's note:

The congregational verses needed for this arrangement can be found in the vast majority of hymnals as Jesus Shall Reign with text by Isaac Watts, using the tune, Duke Street, composed by John Hatton.

Robert Lau

Robert Lau holds a B.S. in Music Education from Lebanon Valley College, an M.A. in Theory from The Eastman School of Music and a Ph. D. in Musicology from The Catholic University of America. He is Professor Emeritus of Music at Lebanon Valley College where he taught and chaired the Music Department. He also served as Adjunct Professor at Penn State Harrisburg where he taught in the School of Humanities.

Dr. Lau has had a varied career as a church musician. He was recently named Music Associate at the Cathedral of St. Stephen (Episcopal) in Harrisburg, PA, where he will co-lead diocesan Choral Evensongs as well as participating in occasional Sunday morning Eucharists and special events. He has more than 350 choral and keyboard works published by the leading music publishing companies of the United States. He has been commissioned to write works for a variety of institutions, churches and individuals and is a consistent winner of Special Awards from ASCAP for his work in published choral and keyboard works.

Dr. Lau is the former Music Director of the Harrisburg Choral Society and former Artistic Director of Jubilate Choral Ensemble of Gettysburg, PA. He regularly presents organ and choral works on a variety of topics for churches as well as chapters of the American Guild of Organists. He has memberships in ASCAP, the American Choral Directors Association and the American Guild of Organists. He was recently awarded an Alumni Citation by his alma mater, Lebanon Valley College, recognizing his contribution to the community, the college and his profession.

Additional information, including links to his published works, can be found at his web site www.robertlaucomposer.com.
