Bonnie Wagner Duckworth

Bonnie Wagner Duckworth (b. 1949) is a composer, instrumentalist, cantor, and music educator. Born in North Carolina to musical parents, she began training and performing in voice and instruments at a young age and later earned a Bachelor of Music degree from Appalachian State University. She has completed advanced study in theology at the University of the South and at The Deacon's School for the Diocese of North Carolina. In addition, she has studied music composition at Salem College's School of Music. There, she was twice honored with the prestigious Rondthaler Award for Creativity in Music Composition. In 2000 she received the Presiding Bishop's Certificate in Church Music from the Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music of the Episcopal Church of the United States. She was ordained as a vocational deacon in the Diocese of North Carolina in 2004 and currently serves at Grace Episcopal Church in Lexington, NC where she is also the director of The Arts Academy at Grace.

Ms. Duckworth has composed a variety of music, including anthems for children and adults, hymns, psalm settings, and works for solo voice, organ, piano, string and brass ensembles, and congregation. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota. Ms. Duckworth and her husband, Gene, are the parents of two grown children and two grandchildren. The Duckworths reside in Lexington NC.
