Eternal Peace

Zvonimir Nagy

SATB a cappella

Zvonimir Nagy

A native of Croatia, Zvonimir Nagy holds bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees in music from the Academy of Music-University of Zagreb, Texas Christian University, and Northwestern University respectively. He has been the recipient of music honors and awards, most notably the Swan Music Prize in Choral Composition and the Seattle Symphony Composition Prize. Nagy's compositions are inspired by the intersection of aesthetics and spirituality on one end, and music perception and philosophy, on the other. His music is frequently performed in both church and concert settings throughout the United States and Europe.

Nagy has taught on the faculties of Northwestern and St. Xavier University. Nagy serves as Assistant Professor of Musicianship Studies at the Mary Pappert School of Music at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; he is also the Cathedral and Diocesan Organist at St. Joseph Cathedral in Wheeling, West Virginia. Nagy continues to perform as a solo and collaborative organist and pianist.
